

Finalists selected for Chinese prize

The six Scottish junior drivers who will be considered for the inaugural Hankook Scottish Rally Championship Prize Drive have been selected from more than 70 candidates.

David Bogie, Alick Kerr, John MacCrone, Mark McCulloch, Euan Thorburn and David Wilson will find out on November 28 if they will get an all expenses paid drive on a rally in China next year.

The six finalists will attend an assessment at Stirling University on November 1 and the winner will be announced at the SRC awards night in Glasgow on November 28. The winner and his co-driver will receive coaching from professional competitors to prepare them for their trip.

THE CONTENDERS

David Bogie

Age: 22 Lives: Dumfries
Scottish championship leader

Alick Kerr

Age: 21 Lives: Bothwell
Impressive showings in Impreza

John MacCrone

Age: 20 Lives: Isle of Mull
Runaway Ecosse Challenge leader

Mark McCulloch

Age: 22 Lives: Newton Stewart
John Easson Award winner

Euan Thorburn

Age: 22 Lives: Duns
Scottish Group N champion

David Wilson

Age: 21 Lives: Alness
Drives ageing Lancer in SRC